

SAT WRITING ★ NEW

In this class students will use the SAT latest edition to learn how strategies to analyze reading using the five elements on how to write a perfect paragraph and/or essay.

Minimum 5 students, maximum 15. Minimum age 14.

260311	Tue	5:00-6:30 p.m.	06/12/18-07/17/18
6 wks	AEC1	102	Gonzalez $192

Required material: USB Flash Drive.

Material Fee: $20 cash payable to instructor first day of class for materials/text.

Esmeralda Gonzalez has a B.S. in Science and History Integrative Studies; Adult Education Credential Science and Math; Masters in Education Special Education Mild to Moderate; Multiple Subject; Independent Contractor: Educator Consultant & Educator.

HOW TO GET A HIGH SCORE ON STANDARDIZED EXAMS! ★ NEW

The "Testing Companies" will make hundreds of dollars for a similar course, now is the time to help challenge yourself and succeed in these exams! The final class will include a practice exam. Who should take this class?

- If you are a high school student who wants to raise your SAT score.
- If you are a nursing student and want to score well on the NCLEX.
- Two #2 pencils for taking the State exam.
- If you want your high school or college student to learn "the secret strategies" of mastering standardized exams.

If any of the above is you, then this class is for you!

Minimum 5 students, maximum 30. Minimum age 14.

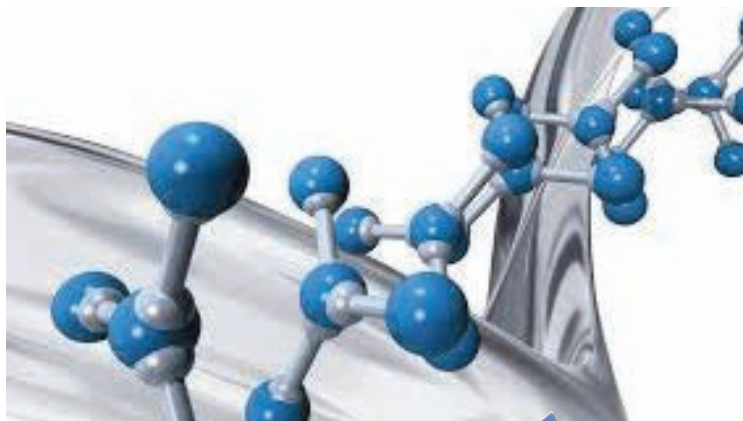

260833	Sat	10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.	06/16/18-07/14/18
4 wks	AEC 1	102	Perkins $80

(No class on 06/30)

Mr. Richard Perkins is a more than 20 years licensed and credentialed English teacher. He is a writing fellow at The National Writing Project through CSULB's South Basin Writing Project and the UCLA Writing Project. He's currently the writing coach in the Palos Verdes Unified School District at Soleado and Mira Catalina Schools.

The Information printed in this Schedule of Classes regarding classes, location, and teachers is as up-to-date as possible at time of printing.

INTRODUCTION TO CHEMISTRY MADE EASY ★ NEW

This course is prepared for high school and college students who find chemistry as challenging and a difficult subject. This course is to help the student make chemistry easy to understand. It will introduce students to the fundamental concepts of general chemistry. Focus areas include scientific measurements and analysis, atomic structure, nomenclature, balancing equations, stoichiometry and energy dynamics.

Minimum 5 students, maximum 24. Minimum age 16.

261010	Sat	8:00-9:30 a.m.	06/16/18-07/14/18
5 wks	AEC 1	106	Oda $175

Material Fee: $15 cash payable to instructor first day of class for handouts. REQUIRED MATERIAL: Scientific calculator

Maritess Oda has been teaching various areas of chemistry for high school and college students for 16 years including Allied Health courses. She holds a teaching credential in chemistry and received a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry and Master Arts Teaching Chemistry. Mrs. Oda is very passionate in making chemistry an interesting and easy to understand subject.

INTRODUCTION TO SCIENCE

This course is a basic to understanding science. Some topics include: velocity, speed, time, motion, and force. Will also touch upon electricity. New ways we acquired energy.

Minimum 7 students, maximum 14. Minimum age 7.

261005	Sat	12:15-1:15 p.m.	06/23/18-07/14/18
4 wks	AEC1	104	Cao $68

Material Fee: $25 cash payable to instructor first day of class for handouts.

BASIC MATH REVIEW

This class will review the basic math skills to make sure students feel confident about using math in their workplace and daily life. Some of the topics include are: Multiple Digits Addition/Subtraction, Division, Decimal, Prime Numbers, and Graphing.

Minimum 7 students, maximum 14.

261313	Sat	11:00a.m.-12:00 p.m.	06/16/18-07/07/18
4 wks	AEC1	104	Cao $100

Material Fee: $20 cash payable to instructor first day of class for handouts.

Dan Cao has been teaching for 16 years. He has been a teacher at an independent schools and a substitute for different school districts. He holds a teaching credential for Designated Subjects. He also holds a Master Degree in School Counseling with PPS Credential.